The Lessons

A reading from Revelation (7:9–17)

Commentary:

The subject of the Book of Revelation is Jesus Christ, it is an unveiling, a 'revelation', of Him. In this passage, John was granted a vision of heaven itself, of the throne room of God, where he saw the salvation of a great multitude. People from every race and nation are before God's throne. They are clothed in white symbolizing righteousness, and holding palm branches symbolizing victory and joy. This multitude, along with the angelic beings, fall on their faces before God in ceaseless worship. John did not know the identity of these people. An elder told him they were saints who had endured great hardship and were cleansed by the blood of the Lamb. God will protect them and share fellowship with them and the Lamb will refresh them. For them, every discomfort and sorrow of earthly life is gone forever.

After this I, John, looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying, "Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen." Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. "For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them. They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Thanks be to God.

A reading from 1 John (3:1–3)

Commentary:

The message of 1 John could be stated this way: fellowship with God is the essence of eternal life. Believers may be misunderstood by the world, but they are loved by God, which is far more important. Although we are presently God's children, we do not yet fully reflect His image as we shall when we see Him face to face. The Christian's hope is unshakeable confidence in a future in the presence of Jesus Christ.

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew (5:1–16)

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying: 'Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 'Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. 'Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. 'Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. 'Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. 'Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. 'Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. 'Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 'Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you. 'You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled under foot. 'You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hidden. No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.
