Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to praise you, Almighty God, for the acts of love by which you have redeemed us through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. On this day he entered the holy city of Jerusalem in triumph, and was proclaimed as King of kings by those who spread their garments and branches of palm along his way. Let these branches be for us signs of his victory, and grant that we who bear them in his name may ever hail him as our King, and follow him in the way that leads to eternal life; who lives and reigns in glory with you and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

The Collect of the Day (remain standing)

Almighty and everliving God, in your tender love for the human race you sent your Son our Savior Jesus Christ to take upon him our nature, and to suffer death upon the cross, giving us the example of his great humility: mercifully grant that we may walk in the way of his suffering, and also share in his resurrection; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Commentary:

Paul turned to the ultimate example, Jesus Christ, to encourage humility and unity within the Philippian church. Jesus, the Son of God, voluntarily and willingly adopted a manner of existence different from His Father, that of God-man. He chose not to use His powers to lift Himself above ordinary human limitations. Jesus did not lay aside the form of God, He added on the form of a man, of a servant; Jesus appeared to people around Him just as any other man. Jesus was willing to endure death by crucifixion, a means of execution so brutal that Roman citizens were exempt from it. The Son was submissive to the depths of humiliation and God the Father raised Him to the height of exaltation. One day, every knee will bow in recognition of the Lordship of Jesus Christ.

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death—even death on a cross. Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Lector: The word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Palm Sunday Anthems (Sung by the St. James Children's Choir)

Here Comes Jesus on a Donkey

Here comes Jesus on a donkey riding, oh, so slow!
All the children run before him, singing as they go.
Hosanna, hosanna, singing all along.
Hosanna, hosanna, Jesus loves their song.

People lay their coats before him as they ride along,
waving branches, loudly singing, hear their happy song.
Hosanna, hosanna, singing all along.
Hosanna, hosanna, Jesus loves their song.

In God's house their voices ringing, praising loud and long;
though men try to stop their singing, Jesus wants their song.
Hosanna, hosanna, singing all along.
Hosanna, hosanna, Jesus loves their song.

He'll be riding on a donkey when he comes

He'll be riding on a donkey when he comes
He'll be riding on a donkey when he comes
He'll be riding on a donkey,
He'll be riding on a donkey,
He'll be riding on a donkey when he comes.

So we'll all sing hosanna when he comes
So we'll all sing hosanna when he comes
So we'll all sing hosanna
So we'll all sing hosanna
So we'll all sing hosanna when he comes.

We'll all come out to meet him when he comes...

We will throw our cloaks before him when he comes...

We will wave our palms to greet him when he comes...

After the anthems, the children leave for Children's Chapel.

After the piano introduces the theme,
the antiphon is sung first by the Choir, then repeated by all.

Hon - or and praise to you, Lord Je - sus Christ, King of end - less glo - ry.

Verse

Teach me, O Lord, the way of your statutes, and I shall keep it to the end.

All repeat the antiphon

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

After telling a parable to the crowd at Jericho, Jesus went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. When he had come near Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, saying, “Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, ‘Why are you untying it?’ just say this, ‘The Lord needs it.’” So those who were sent departed and found it as he had told them. As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, “Why are you untying the colt?” They said, “The Lord needs it.” Then they brought it to Jesus; and after throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it. As he rode along, people kept spreading their cloaks on the road. As he was now approaching the path down from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the deeds of power that they had seen, saying, “Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!” Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, “Teacher, order your disciples to stop.” He answered, “I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would shout out.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Postlude

With the blessing of Bishop Skirving and the full agreement of our St James COVID Taskforce, we are returning this Palm Sunday to the offering of the common cup at our Holy Eucharists. Today will be the first time this has taken place since spring of 2020. Understandably, this transition will be viewed differently by members of our parish family. The offering of wine comes as an invitation, and in no way an expectation. You are encouraged to reflect on what feels appropriate for you and your family. Please know that you are still experiencing the fullness of the sacrament that is Holy Eucharist whether you elect to partake of both elements or only the bread.

Chalice bearers will be present to offer the common cup at all stations. For those who prefer to dip the wafer (intinction), please make sure to sanitize your hands before receiving communion and allow only the wafer to make contact with the wine in the chalice.

Should you prefer to abstain from the cup, when you are approached by the chalice bearer please cross your arms over your chest to signify that you are not partaking of the wine at this time. You will then be acknowledged by the chalice bearer.

If you have any questions regarding communion at St. James, please do not hesitate to reach out to our clergy at clergy@stjamesp.org.

*To all who are weary and seek rest; to all who mourn and long for comfort;
to all who struggle and desire victory; to all who sin and need a Saviour;
to all who are idle and look for service; to all who are strangers and want fellowship; to all who hunger and thirst after righteousness;
and to whosoever will come—this church opens wide her doors.
and offers her welcome in the Name of Jesus Christ her Lord.*
