ST. JAMES PARISH • WILMINGTON, NC

WEEK OF AUGUST 1, 2021

FROM THE RECTOR

THE REV. C. PHILLIP CRAIG, JR.

"For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven." ~ Ecclesiastes 3:1

Dear St. James Parish Family,

For me, the arrival of August always comes with that wonderful combination of both melancholy (the summer is almost over) and excitement (the fall is almost here). I can tell that being back in my home state of North Carolina will heighten those feelings all the more. It's so good to be here!

One of my favorite parts of the transition to Wilmington thus far has been the opportunity to listen and to hear your stories. What a gift to learn about your own families, and also your perspectives on the St. James family. One of the resounding themes Jennifer and I both have heard is the deep and abiding appreciation everyone has for the gift of Mount Lebanon Chapel. Indeed, it is clear that this special worship space has been both critical and sustaining over the course of the COVID pandemic. One Vestry person was so direct as to say, "Lebanon Chapel saved us."

As this extended season of weekly Sunday worship at Mount Lebanon Chapel draws to a close on Sunday, September 5th, I have every confidence that many of you will feel the same combination of melancholy and excitement I mentioned earlier. With that in mind, I do want you to know that we will use that morning to especially honor the unique importance of the Chapel. In addition, I am committed to finding creative and engaging ways to use Mount Lebanon Chapel into the fall and winter seasons. As with all things, I welcome your thoughts and ideas!

Many members of our parish family are working hard, and with much enthusiasm, to plan our grand "Welcome Home Sunday" for September 12th. On that morning - under one roof - we will have the chance to regather as one extraordinary community of faith, celebrating and renewing our relationships, considering our place and service here in Wilmington, and importantly - giving thanks to God for all of our many blessings. It is almost time to embrace the new season - and you and your family are an integral part of the goodness to come.

The author of Ecclesiastes was right. There is a season for everything! I am excited about the fall. I remain thrilled to be your Rector. I am also old enough to know that time does go by quickly, and the season for summer worship at Mount Lebanon Chapel (in late May) will be here once again soon.

Please remember my desire to hear from you, and learn more about your stories. My door is open, and my contact information is below.

Faithfully,

Phillip

*A final note to acknowledge the ever changing nature of the ongoing pandemic. We will be cautious and conservative, abiding by national and state guidance to keep everyone safe.

Prayer of Self-Dedication

Book of Common Prayer page 832

Almighty and eternal God, so draw our hearts to, so guide our minds, so fill our imaginations, so control our wills, that we may be wholly thine, utterly dedicated unto thee; and then use us, we pray thee, as thou wilt, and always to thy glory and the welfare of thy people; through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

JOIN US FOR A GLORY RIDGE EXPERIENCE

August 8, 2021 | 5:00 p.m. | Mt. Lebanon Chapel

Sunday, August 8th at 5:00 p.m. at Mt. Lebanon Chapel, our young people, who will travel to Glory Ridge this coming week, will share their joy and stories from the Ridge and their work sites. Please join us!

"Make Work Worship" is the way of life at Glory Ridge, Madison County, NC. When we drive through the entrance to Glory Ridge, we enter a sanctuary, a Holy and "thin" place that inspired George Moore to create a place for young people (and adults) to serve, heal, renew, and experience Jesus' presence.

This is our 23rd year serving the residents of Marshall and surrounding communities in the second-poorest county in the state. A caravan of young folks, grades 6 - college, and a team of new and veteran adults, will spend a week repairing homes, building handicap ramps, replacing roofs, porches, and plumbing. Most importantly, they will be forming new friendships with the residents we come to know by "Making Work Worship". After each day's work, we have old fashioned fun and games on the ridge. At night, we sit in the middle of God's glorious sunset over the Blue Ridge Mountains, feeling the breezes of His spirit, singing, praying, and sharing our adventures of the day. It's one of the experiences that stays with us all year until we can joyfully return and feel this way again.

We want to thank you, our Parish family, for your support of this mission experience through your donations and the Silent Auction. This opportunity allows us to change and to help change the communities we serve.

SPIRITUAL GROWTH MOMENT: THE BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER

by Erin Becker

I grew up in the Presbyterian church, with a hint of Southern Baptist thrown in thanks to my family's monthly visits to stay with our grandparents growing up. As I grew up and saw more of the world, I slowly came to realize that some things about those denominations didn't fit with who I know God to be. I was fortunate, that my mother was going through a similar journey and together we visited an Episcopal church for the first time in 2015. The tenet of "all may, some should, none must" resonated with both of us.

While I immediately loved some things about the Episcopal church, there were other things I didn't quite get. A big thing for me to get used to was the use of The Book of Common Prayer. I had grown up used to having a typical order of service and free-form prayers. There was nothing quite so rigid or regimented. I appreciated the tradition of it but something about praying with someone else's words was not resonating with me.

This spring, I made the decision to be confirmed and took the time to truly explore what it means to be Episcopalian. Rev. Chris lead a small group of adults through Walk in Love and it answered a lot of my "why do we do that" questions. My big aha moment where I knew I was in the right place came in our second session, The Book of Common Prayer. An answer to my question of "why should I pray with someone else's words" came and it was more profound than I had expected. The Book of Common Prayer wasn't intended to be "common" in the rote or mundane sense of the word, but rather the unifying and community based sense. The intent of our routine isn't just because that's the way it's always been done, but rather any Episcopalian anywhere on the globe can come to worship and can understand what's happening in the service regardless of what language they speak.

The intent of The Book of Common Prayer isn't to define how we must pray. It is to help make certain that no matter where we go, we are assured that we are a part of God's larger family. To me, that is profoundly wonderful.

EfM is a 4-year program which includes in-depth study of the Old Testament (1st year), New Testament (2nd year), Christian history (3rd year), and Christian theology and ethics (4th year). EfM provides an opportunity for prayer, worship, study, and spiritual reflection in a comfortable and supportive group setting. EfM fosters spiritual growth and helps you to shape your faith into action, and to become involved in ministries in your community where you can make a difference. If you would like to know more about EfM at St. James, please contact Bill Bivins (wpbivins@gmail.com) or Karen Clark (clarklc11@gmail.com). Our goal is "56 by September 6," so we are still in need of additional participants. This effort also includes clergy, the Parish Life Commission, and our congregation. If you want to be a part of a smaller community with a larger purpose at St. James or if you feel called to make Christ's love known to our visitors, this ministry is for you! ## GREETER MINISTRY HONORS THE PARKERS

Fostering a true spirit of welcome is something all churches strive for. If anyone wants to know what is expected of the congregation, look no further than to what Ann and John Parker have been doing in our sanctuary for decades. As we rebuild our Greeter Ministry, we are inspired by the Parkers. They consistently and eagerly provide a warm, Christian welcome to those they don't know. By their actions, they are breaking down barriers and letting guests know just how much we appreciate their decision to worship with us at St James. Many of our parishioners have cited the actions of Ann and John as influencing their decision to become members of our church.

In this spirit, the newly named Greeter Leadership Team of Frances Trask and Elizabeth Hinshaw has just named Ann and John Parker as St James' very first Honorary Greeters. We congratulate the Parkers on this recognition and thank them for being a strong influence on membership growth at St James Parish.

We are reshaping the Greeter Ministry, and by doing so, elevating it to the higher level of importance it deserves. One of our goals is to empower each member of our parish to be a part of the welcoming experience that is worship at St. James. In addition to more greeters, greeter training and dedicated leadership, this Ministry is setting new expectations for our congregation. Randy Inge, head of our Evangelism Committee, says that welcoming our visitors and guests is not just a job for Greeters.

All of us must look for faces we don't recognize and go out of our way to welcome them and care for them. We encourage each of you to think of the hospitality shown by John and Ann Parker and to share that same warmth to any who walk through our door.

ON MUSIC AT ST. JAMES

"I will sing to the Lord all my life; I will sing praise to my God as long as I live" ~ Psalm 104:33

Dear God

We give thanks for singers.

All types of singers.

Popular, concert singers, and tuneless singers in the bath. Whistlers, hummers, and those who sing while they work.

Singers of lullabies; singers of nonsense and small scraps of melody.

Singers on branches and rooftops.

Morning yodellers and evening warblers.

Singers in seedy nightclubs, singers in the street;

Singers in cathedrals, school halls, grandstands, backyards, paddocks, bedrooms, corridors, stairwells, and places of echo and resonance.

We give praise to all those who give some small voice to the every day joy of the soul.

Amen

'When I Talk to You' by Michael Leunig

Please know that there will be opportunities for both children and adults alike to join the music ministry at St. James as we return to our "new normal" this fall! Please be in touch with John Sullivan (music@stjamesp.org) for more information.

A GIFT OF PRAYER

This is the Labyrinth that our Youth Ministries has created to donate to our yearly mission/outreach site, Glory Ridge in Madison County, NC. We will be taking this newly created Labyrinth to Glory Ridge so that all of the people who come to Glory Ridge to work and to have sabbath will be about to pray as they walk upon this Labyrinth.

A MOMENT OF JOY ~ SJDS SUMMER CAMPS

We're so very thankful to all of our students, parents, teachers and staff, who helped make this summer a wonderful experience for all of our campers! We can't wait to see you again in September!
