

THE GRAPEVINE

ST. JAMES PARISH • WILMINGTON, NC

WEEK OF AUGUST 15, 2021

FROM THE RECTOR

THE REV. C. PHILLIP CRAIG, JR.

"This is my commandment: love each other just as I have loved you." ~ John 15:12

Dear St. James Parish Family,

We are presented this day with the reality of the surge of the COVID delta variant, and the opportunity to respond as a community of faith committed to the dignity of every human being. With that in mind, there are new safety measures we need to adopt as of this Sunday, August 15th. The information and corresponding protocols I share here are intended to foster safety, to promote health, and importantly - to model our love for one another.

Last evening I reconvened our parish COVID Task Force (see members below), and asked for practical and reasonable advice on best practices for St. James Parish to gather in worship. With the expertise around the table, there was complete and unanimous support for the below measures. With appreciation, I am accepting the recommendations of this group, which include the following:

Indoor Use of Masks: As of this Sunday, we are returning to masks for all who are present inside our worship spaces. This includes our historic downtown sanctuary, and also the interior of Mount Lebanon Chapel. The use of masks will not be required, but certainly acceptable, for those who choose to remain and worship outside at Mount Lebanon Chapel. We will have masks available should you find yourself in need.

The Peace: We have learned over this season many ways to wish each other the peace of God without physical contact. It is difficult to ask, but please refrain from handshaking and hugs at this time.

Communion: We will continue to offer communion in kind (bread only) at all of our services. The distribution downtown will return to the landing (and not the high altar rail), and will be brought to those gathered outside at Mount Lebanon Chapel.

At this time we will not enact additional social distancing measures, nor will we dispense with singing. As has been the case for all of this time, please remember the value of proper handwashing and the use of hand sanitizer.

The COVID Task Force will meet again on Monday, August 23rd. At that time, we will consider the most up to date information, and how to proceed forward as a community.

I recognize and honor that the return of these protocols is frustrating and disappointing for everyone - myself included. Please be patient and gracious with one another, and remember that we are all beloved children of God, and we are committed to one another.

If you have any questions, thoughts or concerns about this information, please reach out to me directly. You are important to me.

Faithfully,

Phillip

SPIRITUAL GROWTH MOMENT: A DAUGHTER-IN-LAW'S VIEW

by Kay Dougherty

Not every daughter-in-law is as fortunate as I was. David's parents were two of the most caring and loving people I have ever known, especially in their support of me. So, it is not surprising that my relationship with them – Doris and Frank Dougherty – was a special one, and I miss both of them dearly.

In 2010, David and I were called by Frank to tell us that Doris had been taken to the hospital in Gaithersburg, MD and that although her condition was not serious, she would be there for a couple of days, before returning to the rehabilitation center of their Asbury Village community. We were told she'd be in the rehab unit for a very short time. For a couple in their mid-90s, they seemed to have things under control.

Still, David's older brother, Winston, decided to visit from Florida to help take care of his dad, and so we did not feel a real need to be there. We'd certainly made that trip many times, and would as soon as we were needed. However, over the next couple of days, in conversations with Winston, we began to understand that Frank's health had begun to take a dramatic turn for the worse, even if he could manage his day-to-day affairs. Concerned, we quickly decided to drive from our house in Pottstown, PA to Gaithersburg, and by the time we arrived, we could clearly see that Frank, with some degree of urgency, now needed to be taken to the hospital himself. In fact, the "authorities" at the retirement community insisted he be taken there by ambulance. Given his parents' age, David and I were not completely surprised by this turn of events, but we were still worried.

What followed was, by the grace of God, a true blessing. When Winston, David, and I arrived at the hospital, we were told that Frank had been admitted and been taken to his room. And so, we went to find him, but planned to check in on Doris on the way. However, when we walked into Doris' room, there was Frank. Married almost 65 years, Doris and Frank were together again, side by side, in a hospital room! "They" – Heaven knows whom -- had somehow put them together, although we have no idea how they knew or even got permission to do that. In fact, not only were they together, but they were watching Frank's beloved Philadelphia Phillies on television. David and I, along with his brother Winston, sat down to cheer the Phils on together.

Then, in the very early hours of the next morning, Frank Dougherty, having spent the evening with Doris and the three of us – five people who hadn't been together in the same room for years – died in his sleep, suddenly, silently, and peacefully. For sure, we were shocked and sad, but we still found peace knowing that, through divine intervention, he had spent his last hours watching the Phillies win and being with his loving family. It just doesn't get better than that.

HOME IN CHRIST

by Sarah Thomas

Whenever you go out of town for a long trip or vacation and leave our house locked up, you realize just how much it means to you. We recently went on vacation to Asheville and after about a week away, coming back into our house and laying on our own beds felt like a new beginning, at least in sleep. I've always enjoyed Asheville more than the rest of my family because I connect better with the mountains than the beach. In the middle of nowhere with nothing but trees all around you, with no phone service either, you can feel and smell the freshness in the air.

When I was younger, I would climb everything I could get near. Cars, sheds, and trees of all sizes. It always scared my mom to death but being up in the highest branches, swaying with the wind was the place I felt most at home.

Another place that has felt like home for many years is Camp Trinity, a church camp near Emerald Isle that doesn't allow phones or any hurtful words. I believe this summer was my 6th year going and every time, no matter who's in my cabin or which counselor I get, I've always loved the feel of the wind through my hair and the peacefulness of those moments when we weren't singing.

Although my real home is back in Wilmington, I have always found home wherever I feel closest to God, in the air. I know that sounds weird but if I close my eyes in the middle of a mountain trail, the top of a tree, or on the edge of Sanders Point, I can feel God in the wind breathing life into me. Hopefully, some of you have found what brings you closer to home with God and have filled your life with that feeling because, as Dorothy said in The Wizard of Oz, "there's no place like home!"

DIRECTORY PICTURES

Sunday, September 12, 19, 26 | St. James Parish

Come ready to pose! We'll be doing updated family and/or individual portraits for our parish directory. After services on the listed Sundays some of our talented photographer friends will be available to take your picture! We invite you to upload it into your online directory listing. Once everyone has had the opportunity to update and review their information, we'll be working to create an updated printed version of the directory. Stay tuned for the timeline and instructions to request your physical copy of the 2021 St. James Parish directory. If you're a digital fan, you may always view the parish directory online through our REALM portal: onrealm.org/StJamesParish/SignIn.

SUBMITTING ROOM AND PUBLICATION REQUESTS ONLINE

With so many great programs and activities at St. James, we're hoping to make it easier to find and submit information! Did you know you may submit a publication request, or reserve a room with St. James facilities on the website?

To submit a room/space use request form visit:

Have questions about how to best use these forms? Please reach out to Erin Becker at communications@stjamesp.org.

GRAPEVINE PUBLICATION & MAILING UPDATE

As we draw closer to the fall, one of the many programs that we have been evaluating is our Grapevine publication. We're excited to announce that we're taking the weekly version of the Grapevine digital! In the coming weeks, you'll begin to see more Grapevine content, like our prayer list and other parish announcements consistently featured in our Tuesday email. In September, we will roll out the fully updated version! We will also be adding the programming and event highlights to a small section of the Sunday bulletin to help make sure you don't miss out on any upcoming opportunities if you don't regularly check your email.

With more Grapevine content coming to you weekly in digital format, we'll be creating a more robust version of the Grapevine to be mailed out on a monthly basis! This transition helps ensure you receive a comprehensive look at what's happening at St. James in the month ahead. We'll also continue to link the month's PDF version to each week's email.

We'll be taking this opportunity to refresh our Grapevine Mailing list! If you would like to be on the updated mailing list, please make sure to let us know before September 1st.

Please reach out to us in the Parish Office (910.763.1628) or send our team an email at communications@stjamesp.org to let us know you'd like to receive or continue to receive the monthly printed Grapevine.
