

THE GRAPEVINE

ST. JAMES PARISH • WILMINGTON, NC
WEEK OF JANUARY 17, 2021

THE REV. CHRIS HAMBY

LOVE WILL FIND A WAY

You never know what tomorrow will bring. This is a mantra that I have been repeating in my head from time to time as I navigate the outside world and life as a parent of a newly minted two-year-old and a three-year-old. One day it is taking another trip to get x-rays for a broken leg for the youngest, fixing the wooden train track, assisting with a puzzle, or replacing batteries for the 143rd time. Sometimes, the moment's crisis is the immediate need for a certain song. A few songs are requested more often than others by the toddler alliance in our home, and a recent selection is "You've Got to Hide Your Love Away" from the 1965 album Help! by the Beatles. "You've Got to Hide Your Love Away" is one song from a musical book, and now the toddler alliance knows this song is something they can request; it has become one often played and has made me ponder the lyrics while a three-year-old sings the chorus.

The last few lyrics are what stand out to me most because what John Lennon was seemingly grasping was that only fools (clowns as Lennon says) would hide their love even if it ends up hurting in the end because love is that important since love will find a way.

We have had a momentous year, and the last couple of weeks have only amplified the anxiety, rhetoric, polarization, name-calling, and unease. As the church, and more specifically, the community of St. James, we need to remember that love will find a way. Will showing love and receiving love be easy? No. Will our efforts be rebuked from time to time? Most certainly. Jesus never said following the way of Christ would be a cakewalk, but he did demonstrate love to all. How are we to demonstrate love to those within our own homes, families, neighborhoods, and especially in our church?

I find it fortuitous that "You've Got to Hide Your Love Away" has been played so often in our home recently; it is a welcome change from Tony Pastor's 1944 single One Meatball as the toddler music tastes knows no bounds, because "You've Got to Hide Your Love Away" is the third track on their album Help! I need somebody to help me, not just anybody, to help me to remember that love will find a way even when it becomes hard. I need to remember that Christ loves me, you, and everyone, even when we feel down.

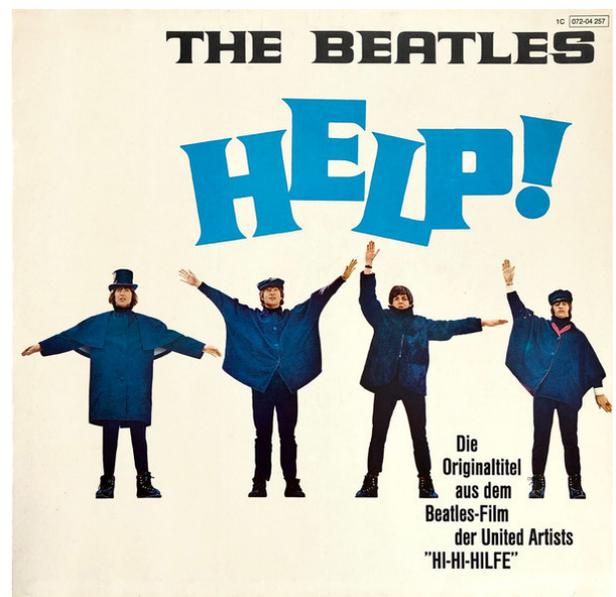

Help me to know love. Help me to receive love. Help me to give love. Help me demonstrate the love needed in to many broken hearts. Lest I forget that love will find a way.

Love will find a way

Gather 'round all you clowns

Let me hear you say

Hey, you've got to hide your love away

SACRED GROUND FIRST SESSION TUESDAY

Tuesdays | 7:00 p.m. | Zoom

What is "Sacred Ground?" - Sacred Ground is a race dialogue series designed for these times. It is focused on the challenges that swirl around issues of race and racism, as well as the difficult but respectful and transformative dialogue we need to have with each other about them. It invites participants to walk back through history in order to peel away the layers that brought us to today, and to do so in a personal way, reflecting on family histories and stories, as well as important narratives that shape the collective American story. It holds the vision of beloved community as a guiding star - where all people are honored and protected and nurtured as beloved children of God, where we weep at one another's pain and seek one another's flourishing.

How do I get involved? - reach out to Ginny Woodruff at ginny@vcwoodruff.com.

SPIRITUAL GROWTH MOMENT

by Palmer Hackler

I have been so blessed to be a part of an amazing youth community for 4 years now, and the people in it have really changed how I view being a Christian. I started youth group in 6th grade which was really fun, and then I started going on youth trips like the Virginia Creeper Trail and the ski trip in West Virginia. I actually learned to ski there. As you can probably guess, there was a lot of tumbling down the mountain. I have made countless friends and fun memories during youth group, ski trips, and an event called Happening which is my all time favorite.

There is no feeling like it, maybe because we have no phones or are staying in a little camp. Time really stops and you learn to enjoy and appreciate the little things more and more each time you go. I served for the first time on team during Happening #75 this spring. It has a completely different feeling than when I was a candidate. I knew the ropes and got so little sleep but it was worth it to be able to see the look on the candidates' faces when we sang, talked by the bonfire, and listened to the different talks given by the youth. It truly is so special and everyone should experience it!

Then, in high school I got to start Port City Java Bible Study. We wake up early each Wednesday morning to talk about our week and a scripture before we go to school. Even through the Coronavirus Outbreak, Cookie has made it possible to continue sharing our highs and lows of the week. It truly is one of the many great things I get to look forward to.

I have been guided by many sweet and caring people such as Cookie Cantwell, Frank Gwathamey, Ginny Woodruff, Jane Rippey, and the list goes on and on. All of these people are helping me with my spiritual journey. Cookie has been so on top of everything from making sure we have food and a nice place to sleep, to making sure each youth group and bible study meeting is the highlight of our week!
