

SUNDAY SERVICES OUTSIDE ONLY - LIVESTREAM AVAILABLE

THE GRAPEVINE

ST. JAMES PARISH • WILMINGTON, NC
WEEK OF SEPTEMBER 27, 2020

THE REV. CHRIS HAMBY

GENTLENESS

“Don’t be too quick to assume your enemy is a savage just because he is your enemy. Perhaps he is your enemy because he thinks you are a savage. Or perhaps he is afraid of you because he feels that you are afraid of him. And perhaps if he believed you were capable of loving him he would not be your enemy. Do not be too quick to assume that your enemy is an enemy of God just because he is your enemy. Perhaps he is your enemy precisely because he can find nothing in you that gives glory to God. Perhaps he fears you because he can find nothing in you of God’s love and God’s kindness and God’s patience and mercy and understanding of the weaknesses of men.”

- Thomas Merton, New Seeds of Contemplation -

+Cut out and save.

As we enter a fragile time in our lives in the midst of fires, hurricanes, charged political climate, and a pandemic just remember to be gentle with one another. We are all beloved children of God. However much you disagree with someone else, they are, like you, beloved.

Take this quote from Thomas Merton and cut it out in order to place it somewhere you will see it every day. We are quick to assume the worst in people. Every action is seen with ill intention. Thomas Merton asks us to respect everyone we meet. Consider what someone is saying and properly respond without reaction. Attacking, blaming, or shaming is not helpful. This does not mean you are acquiescing to their ideas, but you are instead attempting to understand their perspective. Understanding another idea is imperative to converse with reason even if you continue in disagreement.

When we disagree we need to remember to disagree with love. We learn and listen. We disagree with those we love all the time, yet we can still listen. If we see the reflection of Christ in everyone we can begin to understand in the midst of disagreement. Seeking a shared understanding means we are listening deeply to what is being said. We are listening to ideas and issues. We discuss ideas and issues as we avoid ad hominem attacks as those are distractions from active engagement and listening. We might not know everything about the topic at hand so we must be humble in our understanding, experience, and expertise.

Thomas Merton implores us to look deeper and actually converse, listen, engage, and understand. Remember the words of Thomas Merton and remember we are all beloved children of God.

VESTRY NOMINATIONS

Deadline to Submit Nominees October 23, 2020.

Is there someone in our St. James community you admire whose leadership and vision would enliven the life, worship and governance of our parish? Who in your life here has touched you with their witness and commitment? Who has set an example of fulfilling the ministry of the laity? Have you yearned to help lead the Church in a new way?

The Vestry is composed of just such people, nominated and elected by fellow parishioners. The qualities we are looking for in Vestry members include:

- Leadership and a track record of service in one or more ministries;
- Commitment to the mission of St. James Parish... To welcome all to grow in love of God and neighbor;
- Participation as a pledging member of St. James Parish;
- And the willingness to accept God's call to serve.

If you know someone who fits this description, if you are yourself one of these special folks, please let the Nominating Committee know by completing the nomination form found on www.stjamesp.org/vestry-nomination.

Serving as a member of the Vestry is one of the most rewarding challenges this Church can place before you. Thank you for helping to identify our future leaders and for opening the door for them to become part of an extraordinary group of people, brought together by God's will, lifted by prayer, and enlivened by purpose.

SPIRITUAL GROWTH MOMENT

by Watson Barnes

It was really awesome to be back at Lebanon Chapel this past Sunday. It was a beautiful Fall morning, and the Lebanon grounds looked outstanding. I enjoyed seeing old friends and having the chance to speak with some newcomers. Although I had to speak to them across the short distance between our circles, it was nevertheless a great chat!

I took a walk over to the All Saints' garden and marveled at how great it looked and how well it has been maintained. As an added bonus to the morning, later on I ran into a couple I had not seen at church in a year or more. It was great to find them doing well and still a part of the St. James community. I realized how much I have missed seeing people and interacting face-to-face at church.

Feeling a little inspired after all of this, I listened to Chris Hamby's sermon again online. His preaching and the Gospel reading really spoke to me. Chris referenced the parable of the Prodigal Son, who squandered everything, but was welcomed back with open arms. Now, I don't think I've squandered my faith entirely over the last few months, but let's say there have been times in my life when my faith has been stronger. Despite my shortcomings as a struggling Christian, I know God welcomed me back to Lebanon today with arms wide open. In Chris's words, "there is no partiality in God's kingdom", and His grace is meant for everyone.

Looking back over the last six months, it is hard not to dwell on the challenges we have faced on so many fronts. However, my Sunday experience confirmed that we can be filled with hope, and that we have much to be thankful for. From Peter 5:10: And the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Christ, after you have suffered a little while, will himself restore you and make you strong, firm and steadfast.

THE WAY OF LOVE

Thursday, October 1, 2020 | 7:00 p.m. | Zoom

Join a small group on Thursday evenings on Zoom as we look at this Practical Guide to Following Jesus. As followers of Christ, we are called to live in ways that draw us ever closer to our Savior. To follow Jesus is to make extraordinary commitments: To love God with our whole being and to love others as Jesus has loved us. One path to the Way of Love is through seven key actions: Turn. Learn. Pray. Worship. Bless. Go. Rest. This practical guide explores these words in the context of our life of faith and offers encouragement to begin or deepen spiritual practices to strengthen our journey with Jesus. Written by Scott Gunn, an Episcopal priest and executive director of Forward Movement. Contact Cheryl at cheryl@stjamesp.org to sign up or to order the book

KEEPING CONNECTED

For the past 6 months a group of dedicated volunteers have been making calls to parishioners, checking on their needs and verifying that the information in the parish directory is correct.

Sometimes, a phone number is disconnected or an email bounces back. Please make sure we have your current information on file. You can also check with the parish office, 910-763-1628.

If you received a voicemail from a volunteer, be a dear and return the call. We do want to know how you are faring!

We occasionally receive returned mail due to an outdated address. If the office determines you cannot be located, mailings will be discontinued until you contact us.

Please keep us up to date on your moves!

SACRED GROUND

Our 10 week journey is getting ready to draw to a close. We would like to invite anyone who would be interested in joining us to participate in the next round of Sacred Ground.
